

Hispanic Education Awareness

Project Title	Hispanic Education Awareness
Project Summary	Working with the White House Initiative on Educational Excellence for Hispanics, using your creativity and research skills, the research and communications interns will conduct research on education issues affecting Hispanics as well as work on outreach materials.
Country	United States

Project Description

The White House Initiative’s Year-round Virtual Internship Program provides current undergraduate and graduate students an opportunity to intern with WHI remotely on their campus.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

Collecting research and data on Latino education, institutions and communities for briefing materials;

Creating and/or updating presentations, fact sheets, one-pagers or talking points;

Providing social media updates to the WHI’s accounts as needed;

Participating in strategic planning and staff meetings; and

Assisting with all planning and implementation needs out-of-town events and meetings, which can include collecting/researching background materials, contacting speakers, cataloging attendees, and more;

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Analytical writing

Research

Social media management

Additional Information

None

Language Requirements

Language	Speaking Proficiency	Reading Proficiency	Importance
Spanish	Elementary proficiency	Elementary proficiency	Nice to Have